4. Graduate education can be a rigorous and costly endeavor. How do you plan to manage this experience given the other demands in your life (e.g. family, work, and so on)?

5. The essays are one of the most important parts of your application. We ask that they reflect your own thinking and analysis while demonstrating your writing skills. These essays should be in accordance with basic APA guidelines and all 5 essays should not exceed a total of 10 pages. Please address all items requested and attach the essays to your application.

ESSAY I: The School of Social Work is dedicated to providing excellent graduate education for people committed to creating social change with individuals, families and communities. Discuss in detail a social problem that concerns you and describe how you might address that issue as a masters prepared social worker.

ESSAY II: What life experiences led you to make a career decision to seek a Master of Social Work degree? In what ways do you think these experiences will shape your professional development?

ESSAY III: At the MSW level, social workers are expected to provide leadership at multiple levels of practice. Describe your most significant leadership experience. Discuss the challenges you faced and your impact. What did you learn from this experience about your strengths and weaknesses as a leader?

ESSAY IV: The profession of Social Work values the cultural diversity of those we service (i.e. the individuals, families, and communities). We each bring a unique worldview to these situations that stem from our own culture and life experiences. Discuss an experience or situation that has fundamentally transformed the way you think about someone else's cultural behavior or beliefs.

ESSAY V: Describe your understanding of the Social Work profession and its core values. Discuss how your career goals and core beliefs do or do not fit with the mission and values of the profession.

I affirm that the information provided in this application for admission to the MSW program, and in any attachments hereto, are true and complete. I understand that the School of Social Work will use the information I have provided in reaching an admissions decision. I further understand that if I am admitted and the information provided is found to be false, incomplete, or completed by another, I may be dismissed from the MSW Program.
