PARENTAL CONSENT FOR R-RATED MOVIES

SUMMER ACADEMY 2017

Throughout the Summer Academy, the Board of Regents of the Nevada System of Higher Education on behalf of the University of Nevada, Reno Upward Bound Programs and its employees may show rated “R” films as part of instruction and/or co-curricular programming.

In particular, instructors will often utilize films in class to demonstrate a concept, idea, or principle in a visual form to students. At times, this may involve showing a movie that is rated “R”. For example, in a history class, a film may be shown about war that involves violence and is rated “R”.

By signing this form, you are giving permission for your child to be able to participate in a class or activity where an “R” rated film is shown. Signing this form also provides your child permission to view “R” rated films that may be shown in residence halls or at the University of Nevada, Reno campus.
