

“Are they Getting IT? Enhance Your Assessment Techniques with Clickers”

Teaching and Learning Technologies (TLT)

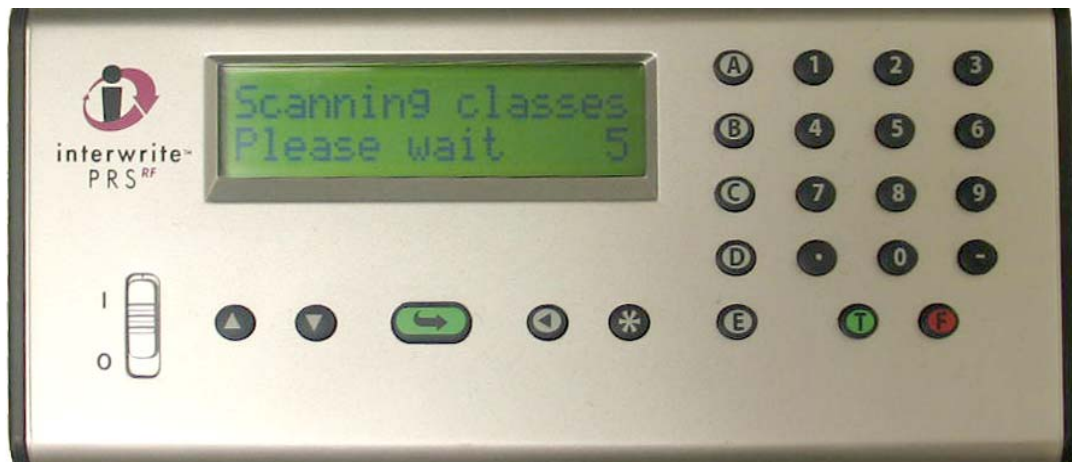

Greg Gardella, Alina Solovyova-Vincent and Alana Pahku

Benefits of Clickers

- Engages students in the learning process
- Provides real-time feedback
- Facilitates responsive and flexible teaching
- Makes class more dynamic, active and fun
- Useful as a polling tool in non-classroom setting

UNR Standard Clicker: InterWrite Learning PRS

<http://www.interwritelearning.com/>

Supported Questions

- True/False
- Multiple Choice
- Numeric
- Short answer
- Series
- Survey

Supported Modes

- Quiz
- Poll
- Homework

- Test (self-paced)

Features of PRS

- Integrated with PowerPoint
- Textbook publishers' questions can be imported
- “On-the-fly” questions
- Instant grading
- Instant response graph
- Multiple reporting options
- Integration with WebCampus (formerly WebCT)
- Great support from the InterWrite Learning company

Where Do I Go From Here?

- Hands-on workshops
- Demo Kit
- Trial Class Kit
- WebCampus/WebCT PRS site
- InterWrite Learning website
- Individual or group consultations and support
- Support with the first classes
- Start planning for the next semester (syllabus, flash drive, bookstore, publishers, classroom scheduling)

Contact Information

Questions about workshops:

idt@unr.edu

Getting started with Clickers:

classroom@unr.edu