

THE ENGLISH DEPARTMENT PUBLIC OCCASIONS COMMITTEE PRESENTS

A Day with Kim Addonizio

Tuesday, November 10th, 2009

The Great Room, Joe Crowley Student Union, UNR Campus

Craft Talk and Q & A 4:00-5:00 pm

Reading and Book Signing 5:30 pm

Kim Addonizio is a prolific writer: five books of poetry (including Tell Me, finalist for the National Book Award); two novels (including Little Beauties, selected as "Best Book of the Month" by [who else?] the Book-of-the-Month Club; one collection of short fiction (In the Box Called Pleasure); two books on the craft of poetry (Ordinary Genius and The Poet's Companion, the latter with Dorianne Laux); and coeditor of the anthology Dorothy Parker's Elbow: Tattoos on Writers, Writers on Tattoos. She's earned numerous awards including two NEA Fellowships, a Guggenheim Fellowship, and a Pushcart Prize. She also plays a mean blues harmonica!

For more information contact Gailmarie Pahmeier at pahmeier@unr.nevada.edu

SPECIAL THANKS TO THE JCSU STAFF, THE ASUN BOOKSTORE, AND DAVID FENIMORE