

Department of English
Ph.D. Literature and Environment (L&E)

Program Checklist (revised 06/06)

- Committee Chair

- Two additional English department members

- Two members from other departments

- Required courses (or their equivalents)
Include courses transferred from the M.A.
 - English 711—Introduction to Graduate Study
 - English 745—Ecocriticism and Theory
 - English 736 Internship (1 to 4 credits)
- L&E Electives
(See Director of Graduate Studies for list of eligible courses.) Minimum of 3 graduate-level courses.
English 736 and 745 may not be listed here.
Include courses transferred from the M.A.

- Other Electives
See Graduate Bulletin for specific guidelines.
Include courses transferred from the M.A.

- Foreign language or auxiliary training requirement
(high competence in one language; competence in two languages; or competence in one language and two 600- or 700-level courses in cognate discipline).
Plan must be approved by committee chair.

- L&E Meetings (annually)
 - Orientation Retreat
 - Professionalization Retreat
 - Portfolio Review Meeting
- Credits from M.A. _____ (24 maximum)
- 700-level credits, exclusive of dissertation credits
_____ (31 minimum, at least 19 beyond the M.A.)
- Full-time residence (2 semesters)
- Comprehensive examinations
 - Environmental Literature
 - Ecocritical Theory and Practice
 - Literature area 1 _____
 - Literature area 2 _____
 - Professional portfolio
 - Oral exam
 - English 795, 1 credit
- Dissertation
 - English 799, 24 credits
 - Prospectus approved
 - Dissertation approved
 - Defense or public presentation
- Total graduate credits _____ (73 minimum)

- Graduate School forms
- Transfer Credit Evaluation (if needed)
 - Program of Study
 - Admission to Candidacy
 - Application for Graduation
 - Notice of Completion

Time Allowed: The Graduate School mandates that all requirements must be satisfied during the eight calendar years immediately preceding the granting of the degree.