A $50 non-refundable application fee (payable to NERDS) must be included with this application. Our grant pays ALL of the $1,248 tuition. You will also need to pay a $60 fee (payable to the Board of Regents) if you have never taken graduate credits at UNR. The $60 fee is payable by check or credit card and is due at the first pre-session. You will also need to provide proof of immunizations.

Applications will be considered in the order received, with preference given to teams. Team application packets must include each team member's application and check to be considered for acceptance.

My signature below indicates I understand that attendance at ALL sessions is mandatory (do not apply if you cannot or will not attend all sessions). I agree to be in attendance at all sessions.
