

College of Engineering

Scrugham Medal Panel

October 23, 2009

2pm - 3pm

HREL 109 & 110

Ask questions of industry leaders | Open to all engineering students

JEFF CECCARELLI - (CE '76) SCRUGHAM MEDAL RECIPIENT 2008

- President of NV Energy
- Started at Sierra Pacific Power / NV Energy as a student engineer
- Current Chair of the College of Engineering's Advisory Board
- UNR's 2009 Alumnus of the Year

JIM GARDNER- (ME '60) SCRUGHAM MEDAL RECIPIENT 2007

- Worked on the Gemini and Apollo spacecraft
- Led Gardner Mechanical Engineering as CEO and President
- Pioneering work in energy conservation
- Received "Engineer of the Year" from NSPE

J. DIETRICH STROEH - (CE '60) SCRUGHAM MEDAL RECIPIENT 2007

- Youngest Water District Manager in the State of California
- General Manager for Marin Municipal Water District - Instrumental in achieving a record in Countywide water conservation during the 1976-1977 drought.
- Founder and principal of CSW/Stuber-Stroeh Engineering Group, Inc.
- His experiences are the basis of the book, "The Man Who Made it Rain" by Michael McCarthy

For more information please contact
Maryanne Cameron
Phone: 682-9503 | Email: mcameron@unr.edu