

Judith Paparozzi, J.D., M. Ed.
Kure Beach, NC

Education:

Juris Doctorate, Seton Hall Law School, Newark, NJ 1986

Masters in Education, Social Restoration Program, Lehigh University, 1978

BA Social Work, AA Criminal Justice, College of Santa Fe, NM 1976
Work and Educational History:

Professional:

Adjunct professor of criminal justice, victimology, organized crime, restorative justice, probation and parole, corrections, ESL, college reading and writing for University of NC, Pembroke, University of Nevada, Reno*, Brookdale Community College, NJ, and Atlantic Community College, NJ. (1976 to present)

Municipal Prosecutor & municipal public defender: Garwood Municipal Court, 1993-2003
Law firm of Judi Paparozzi, Sergeantsville, NJ 1991-2003

Assistant Prosecutor, Union County Prosecutor's Office, Elizabeth, NJ 1986 to 1991

NJ State Parole Board, Unit Chief, Hearing Officer, Parole Counselor assigned to Rahway State Prison, Trenton State Prison, Reception Unit, Leesburg State Prison, 1979 to 1986.

State Correctional Institute, Camp Hill, teacher of math and science, 1977 to 1978.

Penitentiary of New Mexico, Pre-release program coordinator from 1972 to 1976.

*JM 732 History and Development of Parole & Probation (May 19 - Aug 9, 2008)