

Spring 2012

Justice Management Courses

open to ALL UNR Graduate Students*

12 week, 3-credit, online courses Jan 23, 2012 to Apr 15, 2012

Register via MyNevada

- JM 601 Introduction to Justice Management, 3 credits. Subject matter experts engage students in examining the fundamental issues associated with the Justice Management program's areas of concentration: Juvenile, Adult, and Executive Court/Agency Administration.
- JM 690E Sp Top: Cultural Competence in Justice Management, 3 credits. Principles in diversity and cultural competence and implications for practice and policy in justice management. Special focus on the meaning of differences in juvenile justice, law enforcement, probation and pretrial services, and the criminal justice system in general.
- JM 703 Judicial Process I (Civil law & procedure), 3 credits. Comprehensive overview of civil law and procedure. Areas of law covered in context of causes of action filed in court. Litigation, discovery, trial.
- JM 791 Sp Top: Juvenile Sex Offenders, 3 credits. Overview of sexual offender treatment as it impacts the adolescent and youthful offender. Impact of Adam Walsh Act on practitioners. Selected issues such as criminalization, risk diagnosis and screening, reentry concerns, trauma issues, mental health concerns, long term effects of abuse, program design, implementation and evaluation, registration, notification, risk of recidivism, and transition to young adulthood.
- JM 792 Sp Top: Innovations in Corrections Management, 3 credits. This course examines correctional innovations driven by dramatic philosophical, policy, economic, demographic, and technological change.
- JM 792 Sp Top: Elder Populations in Correctional Environments, 3 credits. Overview of challenges facing corrections professionals concerning incarcerated seniors and age-specific issues such as personal safety, obstacles to independence, vulnerability, cognitive decline, and alternative sentencing.

For further information, please contact:

Jane L. Robinson, J.D., MBA
Assistant Program Director, Justice Management Program
(775) 682-7975; justmgmt@unr.edu
or
Ken Gibson, M.S.
Technical Coordinator, Justice Management Program
(775) 682-7976; kgibson@unr.edu

\ Students should obtain prior approval from their program director to include JM course(s) as part of their individual program of study.*

Courses delivered online at:
<http://www.justicedegree.org>

NOTE: Textbook information for these courses may be found at: <http://www.justicedegree.org>