All submissions of high quality will be considered. This year we encourage papers focused especially on the topics of Explanations and Theories in Philosophy and Science.

This set of themes should be construed broadly and may among other things include questions concerning contemporary and historical epistemology; general philosophy of science; philosophical issues in specific sciences; philosophy of mathematics; realism, antirealism, and theory change; and moral explanation.

- All submissions must be prepared for blind review. The paper must have no identifying information and must include at the top an abstract of no more than 250 words.
- Submitted papers must be no more than 4000 words in length.
- Submitted papers must be received as .doc or .pdf files no later than 20 November 2009

To submit papers go to www.pitt.edu/~philgrad/papers.html.
