Bequests Received

We are tremendously grateful to Nevada’s alumni, friends and faculty who chose to remember the University through their estate gifts. These generous gifts, which come to Nevada upon the donor’s passing, support a wide range of programs. Planned giving options can be discussed confidentially with our planned giving director (see Planned Giving on page 60). We give thanks to these deceased donors who remembered Nevada through a bequest gift received during 2012.

From the University’s distinctive Honor Court and the century-old elm tree-lined Quadrangle, to the state-of-the-art Mathewson-IGT Knowledge Center and the Davidson Mathematics and Science Center, the campus offers historic beauty alongside state-of-the-art learning.
Future Planned Gifts Established By Living Donors

Nevada alumni, friends and faculty often provide for their future gifts to Nevada in their estate plans. These living donors chose to remember Nevada by designating the University in their trust, will, retirement plan or other planned commitment. The Nevada Legacy Society recognizes and honors individuals who have included the University in their estate and financial plans (see Nevada Legacy Society on page 60). Though these gifts will only be realized in the future, we are grateful to these individuals who have chosen, during 2012, to document their planned gift to Nevada.
