

Dr. Monica Miller

2009 Outstanding Undergraduate Research Faculty Mentor

The Office of Undergraduate Research recently awarded Dr. Monica Miller the Outstanding Undergraduate Research Faculty Mentor Award for 2009. With support from the Office of the Vice President for Research, this award aims at recognizing the dedication and enthusiasm of faculty who include undergraduate researchers in their research projects. More information about the award is posted at:

<http://www.unr.edu/undergraduateresearch/OURFMaward.html>

Monica Miller is an Assistant Professor with a split appointment between the Criminal Justice Department and the Interdisciplinary Ph.D. Program in Social Psychology. She is also an adjunct faculty at the Grant Sawyer Center for Justice Studies. She received her J.D. from the University of Nebraska College of Law in 2002 and her Ph.D. in Social Psychology from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln in 2004. Since joining the faculty at UNR, she has mentored 32 undergraduate students. Her interests involve the application of psychological theories and justice principles to laws and policies.