ADDITIONAL BENEFITS
Information regarding PERS is available at www.nvpers.org.

The retirement plan fund sponsor is TIAA and the employee may choose a retirement plan commencing on their date of hire.

Faculty who are a State of Nevada PERS (Public Employees' Retirement System) participant must continue to participate in PERS. Additional information regarding PERS is available at www.nvpers.org, or by telephone at (775) 687-4200.

Under the terms of the Retirement Plan Alternatives Plan, employees must contribute 14.50% of their gross salary to the Plan. The employer also makes a matching 14.50% contribution. Both the employee and the employer contributions are invested into a 401(a) account. The retirement plan fund sponsor is TIAA and the employee may choose the funding vehicles for investment of their retirement contributions.

The plan provides for immediate vesting. The employer portion that the University contributes to does not allow cash distribution upon termination of employment before reaching age 55, while the employee contributions will be 100% cashable upon termination of employment (subject to IRS withdrawal limitations). If you terminate within the first five years of employment, both account balances may be withdrawn.

Supplemental benefits plans

Voluntary retirement plans

Mandatory retirement plan

Retirement plan alternatives (RPA) plan

Administrative and academic faculty who are hired on an “A” or “B” contract of at least 50%, are provided with a defined contribution 401(a) retirement plan commencing on their date of hire.
