When?  Friday, August 18, 2017; 6:00pm to 9:00pm

Where?  City Council Chambers; City of Fernley City Hall; 595 Silver Lace Blvd., Fernley, NV  89408

What will the Meeting Cover?

The City of Fernley is currently exploring the possible creation of a redevelopment district within the City of Fernley as the City prepares for new growth that is anticipated to occur within the City as a direct result of continued expansion and growth of the Tahoe Reno Industrial Center and continued economic recovery.  The meeting is intended to be an informal discussion among community leaders regarding the following topics:

- Steps in the formation of a redevelopment district.
- Potential benefits and impacts of a redevelopment district.
- An overview of the activities a redevelopment agency can pursue.

This first community workshop is also your opportunity to ask questions regarding redevelopment and discuss potential concerns you may have regarding the formation and administrative process.  Faculty and staff from the University Center for Economic Development, in the College of Business at the University of Nevada, Reno, have agreed to facilitate this meeting.

Who Should Attend?  Invited members of the public, residents, business owners, community leaders, elected and appointed officials, and members of various appointed boards are welcome to attend and participate.

How Long is the Meeting?  The Meeting will be a three-hour event beginning at 6:00pm and ending at 9:00pm.  Refreshments, pizza and salad will be provided.

How do I register?  This is no charge to attend but individuals interested in attending are encouraged to RSVP by Wednesday, August 16, 2017.  To RSVP or to get more information about this meeting, please contact Frederick Steinmann, University Center for Economic Development, via phone (775.784.1655) or by email (fred@unr.edu).
