CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE

Chambers of Commerce are membership business organizations that work to develop and advance the economic vitality of their communities. Activities often include recruiting businesses, providing tourism information, promoting joint retail sectors, and organizing community events. Membership may be open to home-based businesses, government units, nonprofit organizations and private individuals. Chamber presidents change annually, therefore, they are not listed below.

LIBRARIES

References and information services are provided to businesses and the general public either directly or through interlibrary loan. The State Library manages a federal grant program that awards grants for library development, inter-library cooperation and resource sharing, and construction and renovation of library facilities. It also maintains a collection of materials that can be used in libraries throughout the state. This collection includes supporting publication and video tapes that communities might find helpful.

NEVADA NATURAL HERITAGE PROGRAM

The Nevada Natural Heritage Program helps coordinate the resource needs of Nevada's diverse biological heritage with human activities. They do this by maintaining an inventory and current databases on the locations, biology, conservation, and management status of all threatened, endangered, sensitive, and at-risk species and biological communities, and of noxious weed infestations, in the state.

PARKS AND RECREATION
This agency administers several grant programs for developing outdoor recreation facilities, recreational vehicle facilities, and off-road facilities. Other programs include development of the state Park-N-Ski network, snowmobiling facilities and maps, and state campground maps. The agency also operates state parks and is responsible for creating new parks under the state outdoor recreation plan. This agency also works closely with the National Forest service and is knowledgeable about national forest recreation plans that may affect community development. Parks and Recreation can offer technical assistance in designing and engineering public parks.
