Master’s Degree in Equity and Diversity in Education

College of Education
Mailstop 0299
University of Nevada, Reno
Reno 89557-0299

(775) 682-7857
(775) 784-4384 (fax)
Master’s Degree in Equity and Diversity in Education

Advisement Manual

College of Education
University of Nevada, Reno

TABLE OF CONTENTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Program Overview</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Program Goals, Foundational Concepts, &amp; Student Learning Outcomes</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Program Admission</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Program Progress</td>
<td>6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Degree Requirements</td>
<td>6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Application Form</td>
<td>9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Graduate Student Professional Behaviors and Dispositions</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Program Assessment</td>
<td>13</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Thank you for your interest in our master’s degree program in Equity and Diversity in Education!

The education of individuals with diverse learning and cultural characteristics is an area of intense attention in research and policy today. Schools and various other employers seek personnel who are qualified to work effectively with a broad range of individuals.

The master’s program in Equity and Diversity in Education (EDE) offers advanced study on use of inclusive methods to serve diverse learners in the classroom and beyond. This program allows educators and those in related fields to enhance their knowledge, skills, and dispositions to work more effectively with individuals from diverse backgrounds. Multiple dimensions of human diversity are addressed through the program’s course work, with special attention to race/ethnicity, gender, national origin, language, social class, and exceptionality.

Program course work, which consists of a minimum of 32 credits, is intended for practicing educators and others who work with diverse learners, especially in education/training-oriented positions. A teaching license is neither required to enter this program nor granted by earning a degree in this program.

K-12 teachers may choose to earn an ELAD (English Language Acquisition and Development) endorsement for 12 specified credits within this program. Individuals without a K-12 teaching license, who may wish to work with adults whose first language is not English or with non-English-speaking individuals abroad, may earn a Graduate Certificate in TESOL (Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages) for 15 specified credits within this program.

This master’s program offers one degree option: the Master of Science (M.S.) degree. The degree may be completed as a hybrid program that combines face-to-face courses with some online courses or as a fully online program. Note that the fully online version of the program has more limited course offerings.

PROGRAM GOALS, FOUNDATIONAL CONCEPTS, & STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

PROGRAM GOALS

- To prepare educators and those in related fields to be more effective in working with individuals from diverse cultural, linguistic, and social-class backgrounds, with sensitivity to gender and exceptionality.
- To engage in focused study of one or two areas of emphasis, such as mathematics education, multicultural education, and/or ESL/TESOL (among other options).
- To prepare educators who possess a love of learning, value democracy and multiculturalism, develop strong and evolving funds of knowledge, and engage in reflective practice.
FOUNDATIONAL CONCEPTS
This program is designed to target five main foundational concepts that are infused across program coursework. These areas of focus are derived from key guide organizations in the field of teacher education and equity and diversity. (Source organizations appear in parentheses below.) Accordingly, graduates of this program are intended to be able to:

- Respect and value cultural diversity. (ATE, NAME, NEA, OECD)
- Possess knowledge and understanding of cultural and ethnic identities locally and globally. (ATE, NAME, NEA, OECD, UNESCO)
- Interact respectfully with individuals from diverse backgrounds and function appropriately in various cultures. (NAME, NEA, OECD, UNESCO)
- Design culturally inclusive and respectful curricula and learning experiences, while providing high-quality education and holding high expectations for all students. (ATE, NAME, NCATE, UNESCO)
- Interact with diverse classmates and faculty during the program. (ATE, NCATE)

Source Organizations for Foundational Concepts
ATE: Association of Teacher Educators
NAME: National Association for Multicultural Education
NCATE: National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education
NEA: National Education Association
OECD: Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development
UNESCO: United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES (SLOS)
1. Students will demonstrate knowledge of equity and diversity in education.
2. Students will demonstrate an ability to apply research and theory on equity and diversity in education to practice and to conduct critical self-analysis of that practice.
3. Students will demonstrate dispositions appropriate to equity and diversity in education.
4. Students will display writing skills that are scholarly, culturally sensitive, and mechanically correct.

Note: Program assessment information appears at the end of this manual.

CONTACT INFORMATION
Eleni Oikonomidoy, Ph.D.
Graduate Program Director
eleni@unr.edu
(775) 682-7865
PROGRAM ADMISSION

Requirements:

• Minimum undergraduate GPA of 2.75 overall or 3.0 for the last two years of undergraduate study. (Exceptions may be made based on the strength of the overall application materials.)
• Experience in education or a related field, and/or a teaching license
  o Please note that experience in education or the equivalent can take many forms, including experience in both school and non-school settings and involving work with adults, college students, youth groups, and others. If you have any questions about your background experience, you may contact the Program Director, Dr. Eleni Oikonomidoy, eleni@unr.edu
• The GRE is not required for admission.
• In some cases students may be admitted under a prescribed program if their application materials are deemed marginal by program faculty. This probationary program involves taking prescribed initial courses planned with the student’s assigned advisor or the Program Director. Performance in the prescribed courses will be used to determine whether the student will gain regular admission into the program.

Steps to Admission:

Applications are accepted year-round but might be reviewed more promptly in mid-August through mid-May.

1. Apply for admission to the Graduate School. Application must be made online the graduate school link. Select “Equity and Diversity in Education” as your major.

If you wish to begin course work while awaiting acceptance to the program, you may apply to the Graduate School for admission as a “Graduate Special” student. This status, which involves completing an application and paying a one-time fee, allows you to take up to nine graduate semester credits that may apply toward your master’s degree program. Consult with a program advisor before registering for classes as a “Graduate Special” student. Graduate courses completed at other universities may count as part of the total nine credits that might be applied to the program once admitted if, upon university and program review, the courses are deemed transferrable and appropriate to the program. International students are not eligible for Graduate Special status.

2. In addition to your application to the Graduate School, you must apply for admission to the Equity and Diversity in Education Program. Several forms used for this process are attached to this manual. Application materials to submit include:
   a) An application form that provides us with your contact information and your specific areas of interest.
   b) A signed professional dispositions form, which lists our values as a program.
c) Two letters of recommendation completed by individuals who know your professional and/or academic abilities. These can be handled electronically by listing names and contact information on the Graduate School’s online application form. (The Graduate School will provide completed letters of recommendation to the Equity and Diversity in Education program.)

d) A professional resume.

e) A brief essay (about 2-3 single-spaced pages) describing your educational philosophy and reason for pursuing this degree. This essay introduces you to the application review committee and allows the committee to assess your degree of fit with the program, gain insight into your writing skills, and identify a faculty advisor that matches your area(s) of interest.

Send these documents to:

| Equity & Diversity in Education Master’s Program |
| College of Education/299 |
| University of Nevada, Reno |
| 1664 N. Virginia St. |
| Reno, NV 89557-0299 |

The faculty of the Equity and Diversity in Education Master’s Degree program consider the entire “application package” of an individual to determine admission to the program. All submitted documentation of an ability to successfully complete masters-level work is evaluated: undergraduate grade point average and types of courses taken, the letter of intent and resume, and letters of recommendation. You may be admitted to the program on a regular program basis, in which you begin taking courses as recommended by your advisor, or you may be admitted to a prescribed program (see below). Graduate work in either program must be at the 600 level or above.

PRESCRIBED PROGRAM ADMISSION

In some cases, an applicant who submits application materials that program faculty do not consider sufficient for regular admission may be admitted under a prescribed program for a trial period. Applicants will be notified by letter of their conditional admission and told to contact the appointed advisor if they wish to enter the prescribed program. Following advisement, the advisor must submit a prescribed program form to the Director of Graduate Study. A limited number of admissions are made each semester on a prescribed program basis. A grade of B or better must be earned in each course in the prescribed program to be considered for regular program admission.
PROGRAM PROGRESS

PROGRAM OF STUDY, TIME LIMITS, & CONTINUOUS PROGRESS

Note: Graduate School forms may be found here.

By the end of your second fall/spring semester taking courses in the program, meet with your assigned advisor to establish your advisory-examining committee and complete the ADVISORY-EXAMINING COMMITTEE/ PROGRAM OF STUDY form. The Advisory-Examining committee should include at least two faculty members affiliated with the Equity and Diversity in Education Program and at least one additional faculty member from outside the program. All committee members must be members of the UNR graduate faculty.

The program of study must be followed in order to meet all requirements for your master’s degree. If changes occur in either the committee members or the course of study, the student must complete and submit a CHANGE OF ADVISORY COMMITTEE or CHANGE IN PROGRAM OF STUDY form to the Graduate School prior to application for graduation.

You may take up to six years to complete all degree requirements. This six-year period begins with the semester the first course was taken that is listed on the program of study form, not with the date of admission to the graduate program. This might, for example, be a course that is transferred into the program.

After acceptance into the program, you must be enrolled in at least 3 credits each fall and spring semester until you complete your degree. If you take no credits during a fall or spring semester, you must complete and have approved a Leave of Absence form for that semester.

APPLICATION FOR GRADUATION

An application for graduation must be filed by the appropriate date listed in UNR’s academic calendar for the relevant semester. The application form, which includes a processing fee, is available online. The Graduate School requires that you be enrolled in at least three graduate credits each fall and spring semester (Wintermester and summer are excluded) during your program, including the semester in which you plan to graduate. It is your responsibility to know and adhere to all deadlines related to program progress, such as the final date for applying for graduation.

DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

Course work includes a required core that consists of a course in educational research and a culminating comprehensive project, typically taken in the final semester, that involves completion of a scholarly project with an applied component. Another program segment is a 12-credit equity/diversity emphasis. Finally, the program allows students to choose one or two individual areas of emphasis in consultation with her/his advisor. These 15 credits permit concentrated study in areas such as multicultural education, ELAD (English Language Acquisition and Development, formerly ESL)/TESOL, and mathematics education, among other options. Note that K-12 teachers may choose to earn an ELAD (English Language Acquisition and Development, formerly ESL) endorsement for 12 specified credits within this program. Individuals without a K-12 teaching license, who may wish to work with adults whose first language is not English or with non-English-speaking individuals abroad, may earn a Graduate Certificate in TESOL (Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages) for 15 specified credits within this program.

This master’s program offers one degree option: the Master of Science (M.S.) degree. The degree may be completed as a hybrid program that combines face-to-face courses with some online courses or as a fully online program. Note that the fully online version of the program has more limited course offerings. (Contact Program Director, Dr. Eleni Oikonomidoy (eleni@unr.edu), for a listing of online courses offered and/or see the separate online program manual.)

M. S. in Equity & Diversity in Education

(32 credits)

Required Program Core (5 credits)
- EDRS 700 Introduction to Educational Research (3 credits)
- EDS 795 Comprehensive Project (2 credits)

Equity & Diversity in Education Emphasis (12 credits)

A. Complete both of the following (3 credits each):
   - EDUC 680 Multicultural Concerns in Diverse Educational Settings
   - EDUC 761 Gender Issues in Education

B. Choose two of the following three (3 credits each):
   - An English Language Development and Acquisition (ELAD, formerly ESL) course*:
     EDRL 671, EDRL 672, EDRL 673, EDRL 690, EDRL 675
     *these courses will be renamed soon
   - A special education or gifted/talented education course:
     > Special education: EDSP 611*, EDSP 632*, EDSP 711, EDSP 713
     *options for students who have not had a recent special education course
     > Gifted/talented: EDSP 681, EDSP 682, EDSP 683, EDSP 684
   - EDUC 740 Social Class and Schooling

Individual Area(s) of Emphasis—Choose One or Two (15 credits)

Courses for this area, some of which may be taken outside of the College, should be selected under the direction of your adviser. Major areas of emphasis include:

- Multicultural education, or a specific equity/diversity area, such as gender, race/ethnicity, and/or social class
- English Language Acquisition and Development (ELAD, formerly ESL; endorsement or certificate available for those who hold a teaching license)
• A content area (mathematics, science, literacy, social studies)
• Gifted/talented education (certificate available for those who hold a teaching license)
• Special education (e.g., students with learning disabilities)
• Examples of other possible areas: educational leadership, information technology, applied behavior analysis, human development, cognitive psychology, curriculum development

Courses to Consider for the Area(s) of Emphasis
• The course not taken in Part B of the Equity & Diversity in Education Emphasis
• An independent study of 1-6 credits involving focused study in an area of interest (course numbers EDUC 692 and EDUC 693). Must be approved by your adviser and taken under the direction of one or two faculty members.

PLEASE NOTE
As a student in this program, you must ensure that you:
  o are enrolled in at least 3 credits each fall and spring semester. If you take no credits during a fall or spring semester, you must complete and have approved a Leave of Absence form for that semester.
  o complete a program of study under consultation with your advisor by the end of your second semester.
  o complete a Graduate Credit Transfer Evaluation Request to have previously completed, relevant graduate courses considered for transfer into the program (maximum of 9 credits).
  o take at least 15 credits of 700-level course work during your 32-credit master's program.
  o do not take the 600-level version of the same course taken at the 400 level, in which case the course would not count within the program.
  o have the needed background preparation or prerequisites to take courses that are not entry-level courses (e.g., for ELAD or gifted/talented courses).
  o maintain a GPA of at least 3.0 to remain in the program.
  o complete your program within 6 years beginning with the first course listed on your program of study (unless you file for an extension based on extenuating circumstances).
  o consult and observe program and Graduate School policies regarding program progress and completion.

• In consultation with your advisor, o Submit the Declaration of advisor form to the graduate school
  o Complete the Program of study form, during your first year in the program.
  o Submit the Notice of Completion form, when you complete the requirements of EDS 795.
M.S. in Equity and Diversity in Education
Application Form

Please complete this form and return it to:
M.S. in EDE Program
College of Education/299
University of Nevada, Reno
Reno, NV 89557-0299

Name: ________________________________ NSHE #: __________________
Address: ______________________________ Home Phone: __________________
          ______________________________ Other Phone: __________________
          ______________________________ Email: ____________________________
Preferred method for us to contact you
          _________________________________________________________________

Ethnic Group (optional)
___ African American       ___ Hispanic/Latino(a)       ___ White/ non-Hispanic
___ Asian/Pacific Islander ___ Native American

Current area(s) of teacher licensure, if any ________________________________

Are you licensed in Nevada? ____________________________________________

Areas of special interest for this degree _________________________________
          _________________________________________________________________
          _________________________________________________________________
          _________________________________________________________________

Name of preferred academic advisor (if known) _____________________________

____________________________________________________________________

Candidate Signature ___________________________ Date __________________
All professional educators are expected to adhere to a professional code of conduct. Any educator pursuing graduate studies serves as a model for others. The faculty of the College of Education at the University of Nevada, Reno have adopted a set of professional behaviors or dispositions that are crucial for graduate level students. These dispositions apply to the university setting, courses, and field experiences. Failure to demonstrate one or more of the dispositions may lead to an individualized plan for improvement and, in extreme cases, could lead to removal from the program. The list of dispositions is not exhaustive. Depending on the situation, there could be behaviors that do not appear on the list, but which could be considered in an evaluation of readiness to continue in graduate study.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Reflective Practitioner</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Professional Ethics.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The candidate adheres to standards of ethical conduct including academic honesty and confidentiality.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Collaboration/Collegiality.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The candidate works effectively with colleagues and contributes to a professional collegial atmosphere.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Commitment to Education.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The candidate values the educational professions. He or she exhibits a positive attitude toward schools, teaching, students, and parents.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Emotional Maturity.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The candidate responds to frustration and stress professionally and appropriately.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Professional Demeanor &amp; Responsibility.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The candidate demonstrates reliability by attending classes and other required experiences fully and completing work on time, communicating with relevant individuals when this is not possible.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Professional Feedback.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The candidate is receptive and responsive to professional feedback, incorporating suggestions</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Self-Reflection.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Reflective Practitioner

The candidate reflects on and evaluates his or her behavior and work. He or she is willing to consider multiple perspectives of his or her performance. The candidate is willing and able to recognize difficulties or deficiencies and begins to develop potential solutions.

Multiculturalism and Democracy

Student Focus.

The candidate recognizes and respects students as valued and unique individuals and believes that all students can learn.

Commitment to Diversity.

The candidate values diversity in relation to such human dimensions as race/ethnicity, national origin, native language, social class, gender and gender identity, sexual orientation, abilities, and political and religious beliefs.

Love of Learning & Strong Fund of Knowledge

Initiative and Problem Solving.

The candidate takes initiative in his or her own learning, seeks help, and solves problems.

Commitment to Learning.

The candidate is curious and interested in learning more about students and content area.

The candidate seeks out and takes advantage of opportunities for professional growth.

The candidate recognized and assumes increasing responsibility for directing and contributing to his/her own educational development.

The candidate recognizes, appreciates, and applies appropriate research findings to his/her current practice.

Research and Scholarship

Ethical Researcher.

The candidate understands and adheres to accepted practices regarding acknowledging and referencing other’s ideas, writings, and data.

The candidate understands and adheres to requirements for the protection of human subjects as set forth through the Institutional Review Board.
I have read the dispositions and professional behaviors above and I understand they describe a set of expectations for candidates enrolled in graduate programs in the College of Education at the University of Nevada, Reno. I further understand that if I do not exhibit these behaviors based on the professional judgment of program faculty, I may be asked to participate in an individualized plan for improvement or be asked to leave the program.

Candidate Signature ______________________________________ Date:________
The following charts of information show an assessment rubric listing performance levels and indicators for the four program SLOs, program assessment measures and checkpoints students will engage in during the program, and remediation efforts for use as needed.

PROGRAM ASSESSMENT

The following charts of information show an assessment rubric listing performance levels and indicators for the four program SLOs, program assessment measures and checkpoints students will engage in during the program, and remediation efforts for use as needed.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Student Learning Outcome</th>
<th>Unsatisfactory (1)</th>
<th>Marginal (2)</th>
<th>Satisfactory (3)</th>
<th>Commendable (4)</th>
<th>Excellent (5)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Students will demonstrate knowledge of equity and diversity in education. (SLO 1)</td>
<td>Presents ideas and perspectives that are incongruent with key tenets of equity and diversity in education (e.g., stereotypes groups of people or fails to show understanding of the complexity and intersectionality of social identities). Provides personal or anecdotal information and views rather than relying on reputable professional literature, fails to cite presented information, and/or provides minimal information with little or no elaboration.</td>
<td>Displays understanding of major concepts in the field of equity and diversity in education that is inconsistent in accuracy or somewhat weak in substance, such as articulating relatively simplistic perspectives. Inconsistently frames work within inclusive perspectives. Supports work sporadically with appropriate citations, explanation, and examples or at times uses weak sources of support.</td>
<td>Displays accurate understanding of major concepts in the field of equity and diversity in education but at a minimal level, such as showing surface-level understanding of the complexity and intersectionality of social identities. Frames work within inclusive perspectives at a minimal level. Supports work with minimally acceptable citations, explanation, and examples.</td>
<td>Displays mostly accurate and substantial understanding of major concepts in the field of equity and diversity in education, including sufficient but not fully nuanced understanding of the complexity and intersectionality of social identities. Frames work largely within inclusive perspectives. Supports most work with appropriate citations, explanation, and examples.</td>
<td>Displays accurate and substantial understanding of major concepts in the field of equity and diversity in education, including an understanding of the complexity and intersectionality of social identities. Frames work within inclusive perspectives. Supports work with appropriate citations, explanation, and examples.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Students will demonstrate an ability to apply research and theory on equity and diversity in education to practice and to conduct critical self-analysis of that practice. (SLO 2)</td>
<td>Does not make explicit, logical links between research and practice. Prepares a practical product that has little utilitarian value, is culturally inaccurate or insensitive, or targets an inappropriate audience. Evaluates the implemented product in a superficial manner.</td>
<td>Prepares a practical product that is partially grounded in research and provides general and simplistic ideas with limited utilitarian value or attention to human complexity. Analysis of the product after its implementation shows minimal awareness of key strengths and/or weaknesses.</td>
<td>Prepares a practical product grounded in research at a minimally acceptable level and which is adequate in usefulness but somewhat limited in depth or breadth. Analyzes strengths and weaknesses of the product after its implementation appropriately but with limited nuance.</td>
<td>Prepares a practical product that is largely research-based and useful for an appropriate audience. Critically analyzes strengths and weaknesses of the product after its implementation with appropriate insights.</td>
<td>Demonstrates an ability to apply appropriate equity and diversity knowledge to education or related practice. Prepares a useful, research-based product (e.g., instructor’s manual, unit of study, or website) for an appropriate audience. Provides particularly insightful analysis of strengths and weaknesses of the product after its implementation.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Students will demonstrate dispositions appropriate to equity and diversity in education. (SLO 3)</td>
<td>Displays dispositions in written or face-to-face communication that are incongruent with equity and diversity perspectives in the field of education (e.g., operates from a deficit or colorblind perspective toward difference or values some types of background knowledge and experience over others).</td>
<td>Displays dispositions in written or face-to-face communication that are inconsistently appropriate to equity and diversity perspectives in the field of education.</td>
<td>Displays dispositions in written or face-to-face communication that are mostly appropriate to equity and diversity perspectives in the field of education but at a minimal level of sophistication.</td>
<td>Displays dispositions in written or face-to-face communication that are appropriate to equity and diversity perspectives in the field of education (e.g., values diverse social identities and believes all students can achieve substantial, high-level learning).</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>---</td>
<td>---</td>
<td>---</td>
<td>---</td>
<td>---</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Students will display writing skills that are scholarly, culturally sensitive, and mechanically correct. (SLO 4)</td>
<td>Displays significant shortcomings in choice and use of professional literature (e.g., uses old and/or non-refereed sources, over-relies on a limited number of sources, overuses direct quotations). Fails to organize writing into relevant subheadings. Includes narrow or biased perspectives and/or language considered insensitive to some individuals or groups. Produces work that is sloppy in appearance, unclear, disjointed, grammatically weak, formatted incorrectly, and/or not prepared according to task guidelines.</td>
<td>Uses professional literature that is inconsistent in currency, quality, breadth, or synthesis of sources in text. Presents language and ideas that are inconsistently respectful of human diversity. Produces work at a partially acceptable level but with clear limitations in visual neatness, clarity, cohesiveness, sequencing of ideas, mechanical correctness, formatting, or adherence to task guidelines.</td>
<td>Uses professional literature that is minimally acceptable in currency, quality, breadth, or synthesis of sources in text. Presents language and ideas that tend to be sensitive to and respectful of human diversity but possess some limitations in relation to current thinking in the field. Produces work at a minimally acceptable level in terms of visual neatness, clarity, cohesiveness, sequencing of ideas, mechanical correctness, formatting, or adherence to task guidelines.</td>
<td>Uses professional literature that is mostly appropriate but has some minor limitations in currency, quality, breadth, or synthesis of sources in text. Presents language and ideas that are largely sensitive to and respectful of human diversity. Produces mostly appropriate work with some limitations in visual neatness, clarity, cohesiveness, sequencing of ideas, mechanical correctness, formatting, or adherence to task guidelines.</td>
<td>Locates, critically analyzes, and accurately reports recent, high-quality professional literature from varied authors and sources. Synthesizes sources within subheadings appropriate to the topic. Presents language and ideas that are sensitive to and respectful of human diversity. Produces visually neat written products that are clear, cohesive, well sequenced, mechanically correct, formatted properly, and prepared according to task guidelines.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Equity & Diversity in Education Program Assessment

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Assessment Measure &amp; When/Where</th>
<th>Student Learning Objective (SLO)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Checkpoint 1</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| 1. Students will demonstrate knowledge of equity and diversity in education. | • What: 20-item closed-format content test drawing from equity and diversity program material
• When/where: Electronically upon acceptance to the program | | • What: 20-item closed-format content test drawing from equity and diversity program material
• When/where: During EDS 795 proctored final exam |
| 2. Students will demonstrate an ability to apply research and theory on equity and diversity in education to practice and to conduct critical self-analysis of that practice. | | • What: Implementation and critical written analysis of effectiveness of applied component of the comprehensive project
• When/where: During EDS 795 and committee members’ final review of the comprehensive project |
| 3. Students will exhibit dispositions appropriate to equity and diversity in education. | • What: Essay (200-300 words) responding to a provided scenario or statement
• When/where: Electronically upon acceptance to the program | • What: Essay (200-300 words) responding to a provided scenario or statement
• When/where: Electronically upon completing 18 credits in the program | • What: Essay (200-300 words) responding to a provided scenario or statement
• When/where: Electronically upon completing EDS 795 |
| 4. Students will display writing skills that are scholarly, culturally sensitive, and mechanically correct. | • What: Two-page double-spaced literature synthesis on a topic chosen from provided options
• When/where: Electronically upon acceptance to the program | • What: Two-page double-spaced literature synthesis on a topic chosen from provided options
• When/where: Electronically upon completing 18 credits in the program | • What: Literature synthesis paper
• When/where: During EDS 795 and program faculty review of the comprehensive project |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Assessment/SLO</th>
<th>Checkpoint 1</th>
<th>Checkpoint 2 Remediation</th>
<th>Checkpoint 3 Remediation</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Closed-format content test (SLO 1)</td>
<td>N/A (baseline)</td>
<td>N/A</td>
<td>Score of less than 70%: Study readings and lecture notes for EDUC 680 and EDUC 761 and retake test; score of less than 70% on second attempt: take an independent study conducted with program faculty to revisit key equity and diversity program material (additional course beyond those appearing on program of study) and take test third and final time.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Practical application and analysis (SLO 2)</td>
<td>N/A</td>
<td>N/A</td>
<td>(Below given cut score on rubric) Revisit essay after reading provided literature on critical self-analysis of practice; rewrite and resubmit.*</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dispositional essay (SLO 3)</td>
<td>N/A (baseline)</td>
<td>(Below given cut score on rubric) Revisit essay after reading related literature (some provided, some individually chosen); rewrite and resubmit.*</td>
<td>(Below given cut score on rubric) Revisit essay after reading related literature (some provided, some individually chosen); rewrite and resubmit.*</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Literature synthesis paper (SLO 4)</td>
<td>N/A (baseline)</td>
<td>(Below given cut score on rubric) Provide evidence of consulting UNR Writing Center and/or a professional editor for assistance with writing mechanics and APA formatting; rewrite and resubmit; attach a brief description of the main writing/formatting skills improved during this process.*</td>
<td>(Below given cut score on rubric) Provide evidence of consulting UNR Writing Center and/or a professional editor for assistance with writing mechanics and APA formatting; rewrite and resubmit; attach a brief description of the main writing/formatting skills improved during this process.*</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

*Assessment may only be completed one additional time if not satisfactory the first time.