Candidate Professional Behaviors and Dispositions Form

The College of Education at the University of Nevada, Reno has adopted a set of professional behaviors or dispositions that we feel are essential for prospective teachers. These dispositions (see self-rating scale) apply to the university setting, courses, practicum experiences, and the supervised internship and are assessed at different points during the teacher education program. Failure to demonstrate one or more of the dispositions may lead to an individualized plan for improvement and, in extreme cases, could lead to removal from the teacher preparation program.

The purpose of this self-evaluation is to have teacher candidates reflect on their own professional behavior and dispositions. Candidates are to use this form for their self-assessment, assigning ratings with explanations and signing it. This form is required as part of the application to the Integrated Elementary Teaching Program and as part of Portfolio I.

Use the following rating scale for each item:

1 = Not acceptable  2 = Needs more practice  3 = Acceptable  4 = Solid foundation  5 = Highly accomplished

Personal Essay Instructions: Integrated Elementary Teaching Program

Compose a 3 to 5 page essay entitled, “Qualities That I Bring to the Teaching Profession”. This essay should be double-spaced with 1-inch margins and should use a 12-point font. Essays should address each of the following areas:
- Amount and type of experience with children
- Beliefs about teaching and learning
- Strength of content-area knowledge (math, science, social studies, language arts)
- Attitudes and beliefs related to student diversity (consider ethnicity, language, religion, learning styles, disabilities, etc.)
- Evidence of your dedication to continuous learning

Essays will be evaluated on quality of thinking exhibited in content and writing style. Preference will be given to applicants with the highest overall qualification, including the quality of their thinking evident in the essay.

As you present and discuss your beliefs, be sure to provide support for each area of the essay. Support can include personal experiences and/or knowledge you have gained from lower division education coursework, education experts, and textbook authors. Essays will be evaluated for the level of proficiency demonstrated in the categories identified in the rubric.

Letters of Recommendation

Each applicant must submit two (2) letters of recommendation. Letters may be solicited from practicum teachers or an individual who has first-hand knowledge of the applicant’s work with children or adolescents, preferably in a school or other instructional setting. If absolutely necessary, letters may also be solicited from a former school teacher, a current or former employee of a public or private school, a current or former college instructor, a current or former employer, or from other adults who have knowledge of the applicant’s character, experience with children, and/or potential as a future teacher. Do not request letters from relatives.

Letters of Recommendation should be addressed to the Application Review Committee. Request that the writer explain his/her qualifications for making such a recommendation and his/her relationship to you (professor, teacher, employer, etc.). The letter must be on official letterhead, signed with the original signature (in pen, not electronic) and sealed. Letters are to be submitted (unopened) with your application packet.

Preparing for the Praxis CORE tests

These tests are similar to the ACT but are testing for college-level skills rather than high school level. We advise you to complete your core English and math courses first, then, practice specifically for the test using the study materials available on the appropriate website and in the College of Education Learning Resource Center (LRC) in WRB 1021.

Register for the CORE ACADEMIC SKILLS: Combined Test online at:
   Praxis CORE Online Test   CBEST Online Test

Then call for an appointment to take the tests, which are available by computer at local testing centers:

   Praxis CORE – Prometric Test Center  CBEST – Truckee Meadows Community College
   5250 Neil Rd Ste 110, 826-4361        Meadowood Center, 5270 Neil Rd, 829-9004
   http://www.tmcc.edu/wdce/

Students are encouraged to take the test as early as possible (scores do not expire) to confirm that they meet the admission requirements and to avoid being denied program acceptance due to late return of scores. It takes 2-4 weeks for scores to be returned following testing.

Important things to remember

Students who have not completed the lower division, required pre-requisite course work, cannot be fully admitted into the Integrated Elementary Teaching Program.

Students who are provisionally accepted, must meet all provisional requirements in order to be fully accepted into the Integrated Elementary Teaching Program.
