Girls Math & Technology Camp Packing List

• Clothing in layers (typically, days are warm and evenings cool)
• Spending money (fairly minimal—most recreation is included, so this mainly includes snacks or bookstore items such as books and UNR sportswear)
• Leisure-reading material
• Indoor games (e.g., board games or cards)
• Snacks for evenings
• Bathrobe (for going to/from the shower, which may or may not be located within the room)
• Bucket or toiletries bag for taking items to/from the shower
• Soap, shampoo, and other toiletries/personal hygiene items; feminine products
• Hairdryer
• Swimsuit (for water slides and UNR pool, if available; may also want nylon/mesh shorts and/or t-shirt to wear over swimsuit for water slides, and/or a swimsuit cover-up)
• Sandals or other footwear to wear to the shower and at the water park
• Fan (dorms may not be air-conditioned)
• Alarm clock (although we will have a wake-up call at 7:15 a.m.)
• Wristwatch
• Radio (or CD player/CDs, iPod...)
• Key ring for dorm room key in case this is not provided (possibly one that can be worn around the neck or wrist or which can be attached to a belt loop; note that campers will be charged for lost keys)
• Towel for water park (e.g., a beach towel)
• Athletic attire (clothes and shoes for playing various indoor and outdoor sports/games)
• Sunglasses (and perhaps a hat for sun shade)
• Sunscreen
• Camera and accessories
• Umbrella
• Pens/pencils and paper/notebook; three-ring binder (e.g., 1” or 1.5” spine) for handouts in case this is not provided
• Writing materials, including stamps and addresses, for sending physical mail if interested
• Water bottle (may want to write name on it in permanent marker)
• Season pass to Wild Island Family Adventure Park (and raceway and miniature golf) in Sparks only for campers who already have these—the program will cover entrance fees for those who do not
• Talent show items (CD with desired song to sing or dance to, sheet music, a musical instrument, specific clothing, etc.) if you might choose to participate

Valuable, nonessential items should not be brought to camp. Money and other important personal items that are brought to camp should be stored in a locked suitcase or safeguarded in some other manner. Camp staff cannot be responsible for lost or stolen items.
