University of Nevada, Reno
ACCELERATED BACHELORS/MASTERS PROGRAM APPLICATION

An accelerated Bachelors/Masters program encourages outstanding University of Nevada, Reno students to obtain a masters degree. Students may apply for approved accelerated programs after completing at least 75 credits toward their bachelors degree with a 3.2 UNR GPA, typically during the spring of their junior year. It is best to apply one month in advance of course registration, therefore by October 1 and March 1. Contact the department offering the graduate component of the accelerated program for a list of the specific undergraduate courses that must be completed prior to submission of this application and later to submit the completed application. The department will forward a copy of the application to the Graduate School for successful applicants. As part of the admission process, students must select a faculty advisor for their program.
