Grievance Process Flowchart
Note: this is intended to be a condensed guide for the grievance process found in UNR Bylaw 3.2.4
The Faculty Senate office may be consulted for additional information.

Faculty member chooses to file a grievance. UNR Bylaw 3.2.4 a or b

Properly completed notice of grievance filed with Faculty Senate Chair. UNR Bylaw 3.2.4 c

Grievance committee selection
UNR Bylaw 3.2.5 e

Peremptory challenges: 3 for each side UNR Bylaw 3.2.5 f

Subcommittee charged at 1st meeting UNR Bylaw 3.2.5 g

Petitioner and respondent materials due. UNR Bylaw 3.2.5 g

Grievance hearing occurs.
UNR Bylaw 3.2.5 g

Grievance committee chair sends report and recommendations to the Faculty Senate Chair
UNR Bylaw 3.2.5 h

Faculty Senate Chair forwards the original report to the president, and sends a copy to the respondent and petitioner. UNR Bylaw 3.2.5 h

President’s decision sent to the Faculty Senate Chair, petitioner, and respondent. UNR Bylaw 3.2.5 h

Faculty Senate Chair informs the committee of the President’s decision. UNR Bylaw 3.2.5 h

Grievance denied
Process complete

Grievance approved
Process complete

Approved by the Faculty Senate 6-2-2016 and by the President 10-22-2016