English 736, Internship, allows graduate students to earn academic credit through completing a practicum in a community, school, or university setting.

In order to obtain the class number and register for an internship, you must:
- create a proposal for the internship
- arrange for a member of the department’s graduate faculty to supervise the internship
- make arrangements for the internship with the cooperating agency or institution
- have the proposal approved in writing by the supervising faculty and the cooperating agency or institution
- have the approval of the chair of your graduate committee and graduate director
- return this form, complete with their signatures, to the English department office.
