MELBOURNE, AUSTRALIA ADVISING GUIDE (WINTERSESSION)

The USAC program in Melbourne during wintersession is a Partnership program where you will be enrolled at and receive a transcript directly from the host university. USAC will assist in transferring those international credits back to UNR. Courses are subject to availability and approval of prerequisites, which are determined by the host university.

You will have access to courses offered in the following departments and disciplines. It is recommended that you get any courses you wish to take abroad pre-approved by your academic advisor—to request course descriptions or syllabi to assist with this process, email syllabus@usac.edu.

DEAKIN UNIVERSITY AREAS OF STUDY

Students in the Melbourne January program take a one unit course, which is equivalent to 3-4 US credits.

- Australia Today (1 Deakin unit)

The Australia Today course explores key issues facing Australians today with the goal to develop students' skills for working and communicating in the international context; locate Australia in various global contexts, within the British Empire, Asia, the global economy, politics and international relations; and take an international perspective on diversity and difference in Australian culture and society, through a range of studies of popular culture, sport, settlement, landscape and people.
