Fall 2018 HON 215 Honors Program Calendar of Events

All HON 215 students are required to attend a minimum of three different out-of-class activities in fall 2018: One Great Presentations lecture (GP), and two of the following from different categories: career development event (CD), international event (I), wellness event (W) or Honors-sponsored event (H). (FYI) indicates that the event is for your information only; it is not an event that counts towards HON 215 requirements. Substitutions will not be approved.

HON 215 students are required to attend the following TWO class meetings. If a student has a conflict with one of the two events below due to a scheduled class, the student must inform the instructor on the first day of class.
