Field Season Positions Announcement 2016

NPS Tribal Youth Intern/Oral Historian, Joshua Tree, CA. Assist the Park in integrating multiple disciplines and park themes such as Native American traditional culture, homesteading, natural resource, and popular culture, by combining the stories associated with the individual museum objects from both a global and personal perspective. (Part-time, start upon availability). Compensation: $18.50/hour.

Land Health Assessment District Lead, Ely NV. Coordinate a crew and perform land health assessments through the inventory and monitoring of public range lands and riparian systems within the Ely BLM district. Training provided. Recruiting for 1 position. (9 month appointment starting March 2016) Compensation: $1,440/bi-weekly salary and camping per diem.

Vegetation/Habitat Monitoring Leads, multiple locations in ID, WY, WA, OR and NV. Implement BLM’s national Assessment, Inventory and Monitoring (AIM) strategy. Coordinate a field crew to characterize vegetation using AIM protocol. Training provided. Recruiting for 5 positions. (26 to 30-week appointments starting April 2016) Compensation: $1360 bi-weekly salary, $15 camping per diem, $75/ week housing stipend.

Vegetation/Habitat Monitoring Technicians, multiple locations in ID, WY, WA OR and NV. Implement BLM’s national Assessment, Inventory and Monitoring (AIM) strategy. Be part of a field crew to characterize vegetation using AIM protocol. Training provided. Recruiting for 40 positions. (16 to 26-week appointments starting April 2016) Compensation: $15/hour, $15 camping per diem, $75/ week housing stipend.

Education Program Technician, Elko, NV. Stationed at the California Trail Interpretive Center, work with the BLM and local teachers to support curriculum development by conducting research and providing resources to teachers. (March/April through December 2016) Compensation $15.00/hour.

Spring Inventory Technician, Winnemucca, NV. Assist the BLM by conducting field work to inventory naturally occurring springs in the district. This work will support water right adjudications, grazing permit renewals, sage grouse management and other concerns. (18-week appointment beginning March 28th, 2016) Compensation: $17/hour.

Hydrological Restoration Field Technicians, Las Vegas, NV. Conduct spring assessments, monitor restoration sites, and work in both the field and office on restoration projects and riparian area management. (6-month appointment beginning March 2016) Compensation $15.00/hour.