Born and raised in Minnesota, Dack Virnig is a deaf storyteller, illustrator, and entertainer. Dack's love of imagination became strengthened when he was diagnosed with ADHD at an early age. This led to a love of sketching, unique artwork and American Sign Language (ASL) storytelling. His amazing ability to make stories come alive through his hands, whether in ASL or on paper, has entertained people all around the world. With a commitment to raising awareness about Deaf culture and ASL, Dack is now traveling the country to enlighten and inspire audiences of all ages.
