Preamble
In accordance with the establishment of fraternities on the University of Nevada, Reno, the Fraternity System, showing a primary loyalty to the University of Nevada, Reno with respect for the relationship agreement and a desire to serve its best interest, and realizing a need for close cooperation and a spirit of good will among faculty, administration and fraternal organizations of the University, hereby establishes this constitution for the exercising of a responsible self-government within the University of Nevada, Reno.

Article I: Purpose
The purpose of the IFC is to:

1) Promote the general welfare of the fraternity system, the university and the community through developing and maintaining communications, standards of conduct, and common goals.

2) To act as the administrative and executive council and levy sanctions for the fraternal organizations of this campus.

3) To offer opportunities for further development of fraternity life on the Nevada campus.

4) To act as liaison between fraternities and the college administration and faculty.

5) To offer a common meeting ground for all fraternities.

6) To foster friendship and goodwill among the fraternities and the student body as a whole.

Article II: Membership
Section 1
All Greek fraternities and colonies of the University of Nevada, Reno, which have been duly recognized by the proper university authorities and which have been approved by a three fourth vote of the IFC total membership, may become members of this organization by subscription to the Constitution, Bylaws, and Polices.

Section 2
The IFC shall be composed of two delegates from each Greek chapter, one of which shall be the president of the fraternity. Attendance at all IFC meetings is mandatory. Any temporary exceptions must be approved by the Executive Council with the only exception being a conflict with academic classes or routine work obligations. If the president requests an exemption on a permanent basis, the replacement must be approved by the full body of IFC. Each chapter is entitled to one (1) vote.

Section 3
The term of membership of each representative shall be one calendar year, unless the fraternity shall have reason to change its elected representative.

Section 4
An advisor appointed by the Vice President of Student Services shall be an ex-officio, non-voting member of the Executive Council.

Article III: The IFC shall have the power

Section 1
To make and amend By-Laws.

Section 2
To levy special financial assessments for IFC Purposes.

Section 3
To adopt resolutions suggesting policies to member chapters.

Section 4
To remove from office, by three fourths vote of the total IFC membership, any officer delinquent in the performance of his duties [as described in Article VI of this constitution].

Section 5
To levy sanctions, by a three fourth total vote of the IFC, any chapter in direct violation of this Constitution or its Bylaws or Policies Sanctions may be as follows:

A. Denial of eligibility for participating in intramurals.

B. Probation – a time period not to exceed one year which the organization is expected to adhere to special requirements as outlined by IFC.

C. Suspension – Exclusion from participation in the IFC or any of its activities for a definite period of time.

D. Expulsion – Exclusion from participation in IFC for an indefinite period of time

E. The council shall have power to enforce its own rules and the rules of the university involving its member fraternities.
Article IV: Officers

Section 1
The officers of the IFC shall be: President, Vice President, Administrator, Recruitment Coordinator, Events Coordinator, and Athletic Coordinator.

Section 2
The officers shall be members in good standing from fraternities holding regular membership in the University of Nevada, Reno IFC.
