We, the members of women’s sororities at University of Nevada, Reno, agree to promote honesty, respect, sisterhood, and cooperation within the Panhellenic Council and our respective chapters, and in our daily lives. This Code of Ethics is designed to inspire our members, reinforce exemplary conduct and values-based leadership, and perpetuate lifelong membership to enrich the sorority and Panhellenic experience.

We, as Panhellenic women of University of Nevada, Reno, agree on and commit to:

- Uphold and display the Panhellenic spirit in thought, word, and action through our chapters, as well as individual members.
- Demonstrate ethical behavior and conduct ourselves in a manner consistent with the mission and values of the Panhellenic Council, each inter/national organization and our institution.
- Respectfully adhere to the Unanimous Agreements and all policies established by the National Panhellenic Conference.
- Abide by all local, state, and federal laws, as well as all NPC inter/national member organization policies.
- Promote the high ideals and standards outlined in the Panhellenic Council Constitution, Bylaws and Recruitment Standing Rules.
- Avoid disparaging remarks about any sorority or collegiate woman and refrain from discussing Panhellenic matters with non-members.
- Recognize friendly relations with all collegiate women, both sorority members and non-members, realizing the importance of creating and building friendships.
- Hold one another accountable to these standards, remembering at all times that we represent not only our individual chapters but also the Panhellenic community as a whole.
- Condemn all acts of hate and encourage all members to participate in programing, educational, and social opportunities to promote awareness and familiarity with underrepresented communities on campus.

As Panhellenic women of University of Nevada, Reno, these are the tenets by which we strive to live.

Date adopted: 04/23/2018