Accidental Private Interest Form

Accidental Private rooms are periodically offered to students whose current roommate has checked out, leaving an unoccupied space in the room. Typically these unoccupied spaces are filled by incoming students or those who have completed a Room Change Request form during the room change period. Room changes and new assignments supersede the offering of Accidental Privates.

By completing and signing this form you are expressing your interest to retain your current room as an accidental private in the event your roommate moves out and you are not assigned a new roommate. Upon completion of this form your name will be placed on an interest list and your room will automatically be converted to an accidental private if available. Upon conversion of your room to an accidental private your student account will be charged $750. If this conversion occurs after the beginning of the semester, this charge will be prorated. You will be notified by email and it is your responsibility to provide the Housing Office with your current email address.

☐ Yes, I understand that my student account will be charged $750 in addition to my current room and board charges and I agree to pay this amount (or the approved prorated amount) in full.

You must be enrolled in a minimum of 12 credits per term. You further authorize the University to charge your student account for an Accidental Private room as outlined above and in the Rates Brochure.
