Fitness and Recreational Sports

In the first six weeks of operation of the E.L. Wiegand Fitness Center there were 98,000 student visits. 50% are unique student visits.
Academic Opportunity & Support Programs - McNair

Heather Williams received Staff of the Year award at the Western Association of Education Opportunity Programs Annual Conference.
Congrats Chuck Price! He is the recipient of the Honor the Best for the Faculty Senate’s Award for Outstanding Service.
The Center for Student Engagement/ASUN

The University of Nevada, Reno has been designated as a “Voter Friendly Campus” by the Campus Vote Project and NASPA.
Student Services

Jennifer Lowman, Perry Fittre, Sandy Rodriguez and Shannon Ellis presented “Scholarship is Leadership” at the 2017 NASPA Annual Conference.
Fitness and Recreational Sports

Intramural Officiating Staff represented the University of Nevada, Reno at the NIRSA Region VI Basketball Championship Series at the University of Oregon.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON
MARCH 10-12, 2017
Chris Westin received the TRiO Achiever award at the Western Association of Educational Opportunity Programs Annual Conference.
The Office of the Associate Dean of Students

In March 2017 UNR hosted the NASPA Northern Nevada Region V Drive-In for Student Services Professional Development.
Residential Life, Housing and Food Services
The Nevada Living Learning Community completed it’s community service based program “Dr. Seuss’s Birthday.” 189 school supplies were collected to donate to Peavine Elementary School.
Center for Student Engagement/ASUN

GivePulse has netted:

• 4,249 users who have submitted.
• 2,153 total impacts
• 7,093 verified volunteer service hours
Center for Student Engagement/ASUN

GivePulse has netted:

• $148,801 economic impact on Northern Nevada as of 4/10/17.
• 31 recognized community non profit partners.
Academic Opportunity Support Programs - McNair

Nine McNair Program seniors have been admitted to PhD programs at Stanford, Caltech, Princeton, Columbia, UC Berkeley, Ohio State, Michigan and others.
Career Studio

The Student Career Mentor Team and the Student Communications team are what makes the Career Studio such a great resource for students. Because of their hard work 98% of our clients report higher confidence and 96% leave knowing exactly what they want to do next.
Academic Opportunity Support Programs - McNair

Two McNair Scholars received the prestigious National Science Foundation Graduate Research Fellowship.
Joe Crowley Student Union

Congratulations to Vince who will graduate with his MBA this spring.
Residential Life, Housing and Food Services

Peavine Hall hosted “Dance Your Heart Out” to help raise awareness about heart disease and the benefits of healthy eating and living. 100 students participated and they raised $998 for the American Heart Association.
Admissions and Records

Heather Turk finished her term as Faculty Senate Senator. Thank you for your service, Heather!
Perry Fittrer presented “Encouraging Your Students to Seek Academic Help,” at the 2017 WESTOP Annual Conference.
On February 8 the 4.0 Academic Recognition Luncheon was held to honor the 165 on-campus students that received a 4.0 in the Fall 2016 semester.
Fitness and Recreational Sports

Fitness and Recreational Sports has had six presentations accepted at two conferences this month.
Christopher Partridge was named to the national board of the NASPA Student Affairs Fundraising and External Relations Knowledge Community.
Three TRiO Scholars received Gilman scholarships to study abroad! The students are Lizett Montes, Henry Ng and Jerson Valdez.
Center for Student Engagement/ASUN

The Food Bank of Northern Nevada named UNR to the Top 16 Volunteer Organizations!
The Pack Internship Grant Program received nearly 800 student applications this year, 60 funded internships in 45 organizations and fields across the greater Reno-Tahoe community this spring. Employers contributed funds to enable 14 additional internships.
Center for Student Engagement/ASUN & Office of Student Persistence Research

Both departments worked together to present five proposals at the Annual NASPA Conference in March.

• Political Engagement: Assessing Attitudes and Behaviors at a Public Land Grant Institution
• First Generation Students Redefined: Challenging Modern Day Perceptions
• Starving College Student: It’s Not No Joke
Center for Student Engagement/ASUN & Office of Student Persistence Research

Both departments worked together to present five proposals at the Annual NASPA Conference in March.

- Scholarship is Leadership: Advancing a Research and Publication Initiative in Student Affairs
- At a Crossroads: Examining the Implications of the Latino/a KC Gender Identity & Expression Survey
The Joe Crowley Student Union has 35 student employees graduating in May. This will be the largest graduating class of student employees!
Admissions and Records

Desi Tillman, Natalie Ehleringer, Lexi Erwin and Melisa Choroszy presented on Commencement at the NAACO Conference in Hawaii.
ASUN, the cheerleading team, mascots and student volunteers participated in Reading in Schools week in March. It was an interactive storytelling of “The Wild Wolf Pack Mystery” at multiple elementary schools.
Admissions and Records

Victor Garcia and Monica Olmos presented on utilizing MyPlanner to continuing freshman.
Center for Student Engagement/ASUN

Sandra Rodriguez was elected Co-chair elect to the NASPA Latinx/a/o Knowledge Community and named to the national board of the NASPA Civic Learning and Democratic Engagement Knowledge Community.
The Student Services Personnel Committee elected Saundra Mitrovich to be our next chair!
Student Services

Staff from multiple Student Services departments participated and presented at UNR’s annual Diversity Summit on March 30, 2017.
Center for Student Engagement/ASUN

Amy Koeckes was named to the national board of the NASPA Civic Learning and Democratic Engagement Knowledge Community.
Joe Crowley Student Union

Congratulations to Helena Farrar’s son, Dakota on his upcoming graduation from Damonte Ranch High School. Post-graduation he is moving to Louisiana to attend school.
Center for Student Engagement/ASUN

The University of Nevada, Reno was designated a NASPA LEAD Consulting Institution for 2016-18.
Susie Askew, Director

• Recipient for the 2017 Global Engagement Award for outstanding contributions to international programs.

• Awarded Emeritus status upon retirement on May 1, 2017
Residential Life, Housing and Food Services

Residential Life staff hosted the 3.0 Ice Cream Socials in February to recognize the 61% on-campus students who received a 3.0 or higher for their Fall 2016 GPA.
Admissions and Records

Members of Admissions and Records, Financial Aid and IT attended the Higher Education User Group conference in Las Vegas!
Washoe County School District named UNR an outstanding Volunteer Partner by declaration of the trustees for 2016-17 for all the students and staff that volunteered with WCSD.
Admissions and Records

Sariah Tillotson presented at the NACADA Conference with Academic Advisors on Graduation Completion and Innovation.