Internship Site Information

NCEDSV supports our communities by providing training and technical assistance to programs and allied professionals that support survivors of domestic and sexual violence, and offering education to the general public on domestic and sexual violence. While NCEDSV does not directly provide intervention and advocacy services, this organization seeks to assist and empower programs and people that do. This includes, but is not limited to: finding financial resources to maintain operations, providing educational opportunities for staff, board members and volunteers, and access to resources that assist agencies in providing the best possible services to survivors of domestic and sexual violence.

Students who are interested in internships at NCEDSV have many opportunities to highlight and expand their skills while meeting goals & objectives of their course work at UNR. Our office is open Monday-Friday from 9:00AM - 5:00PM. Evening and weekends are not usually part of the schedule. Depending on assignments, travel may be a part of their learning, but mileage will be reimbursed. Our expectations for interns is to join us a partners in their learning, project professionalism, and be open to new and exciting challenges as we work to support survivors, their children and community-based advocacy organizations across Nevada.
