

RIDE-ALONG WAIVER AND EXPRESS ASSUMPTION OF RISK

WHEREAS, I _____, being over the age of eighteen years, or having consent of a parent/guardian if under the age of eighteen, and not being a member of the University Police Services, have made a voluntary request to ride as a guest in a University Police Services vehicle and to accompany a member or members of University Police Services during the performance of their duties. I agree:

- That I am aware that the work of University Police Services is inherently dangerous and that I may be subject to the risk of death or personal injury, or damage to my property by accompanying police officers/s while on duty. I freely, voluntarily and with such knowledge assume the risk of death, personal injury and/or property damage arising from, or in any way connected with the use of vehicles, weapons, unlawful acts of force or forcible resistance by violators of the law or suspected law violators. I also assume the risk of assault, riot, breach of the peace, fire, explosion, gas, electrocution, radioactive substances and every other dangerous situation that may occur in the course of said ride-along.
- That the State of Nevada, the Nevada System of Higher Education, the University of Nevada, Reno, University Police Services, the Chief of Police, all members of University Police Services, and each of them, shall not be responsible or liable for any injury, damage, loss or expense, either to me or to my property, while riding in any University Police Services' vehicle or while accompanying any member/s of University Police Services and resulting from any neglect, act or omission on the part of any member of University Police Services whether within or outside of their scope of employment. I expressly relieve as such putative defendants from any duty of care to my person or property and consent to bear the consequences and risks of being a participant in this program.
- For myself, my heirs, executors, administrators and assigns to defend and indemnify the State of Nevada, the Nevada System of Higher Education, the University of Nevada, Reno, University Police Services, the Chief of Police, all members of the University Police Services, and each of them, against any and all manner of actions, cause of actions, suits, debts, claims, demands, or damages or liability of expense of every kind and nature incurred or arising by reason of actual or claimed negligent or wrongful act or omission on my part while riding in any University Police Services vehicle or while accompanying any member/s of University Police Services.

I hereby represent that I have carefully read and understand the contents of this document and sign the same of my own free will.

Ride-along Attire Guidelines:

- Participants must present a neat and clean appearance and wear appropriate apparel. Appropriate apparel consists of long pants and a shirt or blouse with collars and sleeves. Unacceptable attire includes dresses, skirts, t-shirts, tank tops, shorts, ripped or torn jeans, sandals, or high heels. Clothing or jewelry that could be offensive to the public, or to the Department, will not be allowed. Tattoos that could be offensive will need to be covered during the Ride-Along.
- No headgear or clothing should be worn that could create a perception that the Ride-Along participant is a member of law enforcement. This includes police logos, patches, badges, insignia, writings, words, phrases, pictures, basket-weave leather items, flashlights, handcuffs, or any other police-related equipment.
- A supervisor may refuse a ride-along to anyone not properly dressed.
