

Advanced Degree Certificate Graduation Application Deadline Appeal Form

Appeals to the application deadline for certificate programs are accepted at the Graduate School until the last day of the graduation term.

1. If you fail to meet the certificate graduation application deadline for the semester in which you will complete your graduation requirements, you may submit this appeal at the Graduate School Office. When the form is processed (within 10 working days), the $95 application fee will show as due in your MyNEVADA. After the fee appears, you will have 3 days to pay it before a hold is placed on your account.
2. Your name will not appear in any graduation publications (the graduation program or newspaper listing of graduates).
3. If you have graduate registration for a future term at the time you submit this appeal, it will be cancelled unless you submit a new application for admission either as a graduate special or for a different graduate program.
4. Students who graduate from a certificate program only are not eligible to participate in a commencement ceremony.
